A large, abstract sculpture titled "Hengen Peili" by Laila Pullinen is the central focus of the image. It consists of a highly reflective, golden sphere resting on a dark, textured, and twisted base. The sculpture is placed on a dark, rectangular pedestal. The background shows a modern library interior with a service counter, people, and bookshelves. The text "Experience library" is overlaid in a light, sans-serif font across the upper part of the image.
